FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

Welcome back to school and term 2. This term we have a number of public holidays including the Ipswich Show Day. This week sees the start of the Ipswich Festival and this Sunday is Creative Kidz Big Day Out. This day caters for children with disabilities and have a huge range of activities to choose from. It is free for everyone. Details are included in this newsletter.

This term we will have a focus on reading and communication. This will include some information in the newsletter, workshops run by a number of people and some book displays. Keep checking the newsletter for more information.

Regards, Tracey Chappell
Principal
